

Mohamed Zaytoun Biography

Chief Strategy Officer, KnowledgeNet

With a strong vision and exceptional expertise in the Information Technology Industry, Mohamed Zaytoun has managed software products and business operations in KnowledgeNet, LLC for over 20 years. As a Strategy Officer, he has played a substantial role in developing business and ensuring company growth and profitability in the most significant three countries; Saudi Arabia, UAE, and Egypt.

Zaytoun holds extensive experience and an established track record in business analysis and software project management. As a previous director of product development, he embraces a wealth of knowledge and hands-on skills in Business processes, Databases, Software Design, Solution Architecture/Selling, IT Strategy and Service Management.

Zaytoun is an outstanding team leader who has successfully led and mentored hundreds of young professionals to deliver premium software products and services since his graduation from Suez Canal University and throughout his inspiring career path.